Member inquired as to lack of water pressure and reason for it.

Island Managers Report: Jane Wooster, Island Manager

Committee Reports: Jane Wooster

Old Business: Burn Ban still in effect. We are still needing volunteers for several committees, especially Parks and Finance. Fire trailer training is today. It Started this morning at 9. Scott reported that it was a large turn out by island members.

New Business: There is a mask mandate in the office. Please call to make an appointment for any island business. We are currently short staffed. The part time position still needs to be filled. We are asking that everyone distance yourselves from our ferry crew or wear a mask when interacting with them. Dave Hancock and Jim Davies are applying the finishing touches to the Ferry Charter. If anyone would like to be a volunteer on this committee, please contact either Dave or Jim.

Boosters Report: Robin Kelly thanked everyone for their support for the Art Festival, there was a great turn out. All Labor Day activities were meant with much success. There will be a Boosters out door potluck and meeting this evening. Food will be supplied for the small dock removal on the 25th.

Small Dock Report: Sherri Anderson announced that removal would start Saturday Morning.

Adjournment: Scott Young

Member Input: the website has been updated. Some will need to clear their history for this to work properly. Nancy asked for clarification as to what exactly what the ferry committee is looking for.
